Not since 1813 have Navy ships mailed the Great Lakes in force. But then, those wooden ships were built on the shores of the lakes with the abundant virgin forests supplying the timber for the keels, masts and beams.

Now in 1959 the Navy ships return. Not of wood, but of steel and now there's no enemy awaiting their arrival. The colonial tar has given way to the modern sailor in white and the forests have been replanted with "trees" of concrete and steel. Cities grow where once only trees would sprout.

All made possible by the century-old dream, the St. Lawrence Seaway. Once a dream, an illusion, an intense desire - now a reality, brought about by the engineering skill of two nations. The same two nations who fought each other in 1813 . . . now working with each other.

On Friday, the fleet of 28 U.S. Navy ships of grey will assemble at Montreal and begin an historic one-month cruise, visiting 24 different

The Marines with the Task Force will not be stationed in the cross-trees as the snipers of 1813 were, rather they will ride in the seven amphibious force ships of the Task Force and make landings at pre-determined sites. DEAF MAN MARKETS LOW COST HEARING AID

Lyons who himself has been hard of hearing for over 25 years, anounced that he will distribute a ew hearing aid liscovery that

Mr. H. A.

H. A. Lyons will sell for considerably less than the cost of comparable aids.

This new discovery comes in several different styles. There is one streamlined model for eyeglasses, one worn as a barrette for a woman's hair, and a very minute model worn behind the ear.

Mr. Lyons says, "I am interested in seeing that more and more hard of hearing persons get good hearing like myself. The low cost and superior hearing of this new discovery will bring security and happiness to many persons who feel they cannot afford the cost of higher priced aids."

If interested for yourself or friend, write Mr. H. A. Lyons, 2625 Cedar Ave., Minneapolis 7, Minn. He will send you full information.

The organization was formed by the medical societies of Allegheny, Lawrence, Beaver and Westmorland counties to give advice on medical care plans to unions and other groups.

STATE SOLONS

HARRISBURG (AP)-The House Wednesday defeated a plan to allow townships to tax land owned by outside authorities which do not serve the townships

Opponents defeated the measure by a roll call vote of 90-81, after they failed to send it back to the Municipal Corporation Committee.

During the parliamentary maneuvering Rep. Charles D. Stone (D-Beaver), a co-sponsor, pleaded for support from all House members "interested in sticking a needle in the giants of the author-

Lose Tax Revenue

He explained that many small townships lose more tax revenue than they can afford when outside townships concerned.

Stone said the bill was specifically aimed at the Ambridge Water Authority which built a dam and reservoir within Independence and Raccon Townships. He said the authority does not serve the two townships

Stone said he had no intention of resurrecting the bill, but added he may try to draft new legislation more suitable to opponents.

He said the defeated bill had the support of the Grange, the State Assn. of Township Supervisors, the State Assn. of County Commissioners, the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen Clubs and the Pennsylvania Farmers Assn.

STATE GROUPS SPLIT ON BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) - Democrats in Pennsylvania's delegation in the House of Representatives solidly opposed the States Rights Bill passed Wednesday, while Republicans split on the measure. It passed the House 225-192 and was sent to the Senate for action.

Republican for (9): Alvin R. Bush, Paul B. Dague, Ivor D. Fenton, Leon H. Gavin, Carroll D. Kearns, John A. La-Fore, William H. Milliken, Walter M. Mumma, and Richard M.

Republicans against (5): Robert J. Corbett, Willard S. Curtin, James G. Fulton, John D. Saylor, James E. Van Zandt. Democrats against (16):

William A. Barrett, James A. Byrne, Frank M. Clark, John H. Dent, Daniel J. Flood, William J. Green, Elmer J. Holland, William BLUE DUTCH CLEANSER S. Moorhead, Thomas E. Morgan, Robert N. C. Nix, Stanley A. Prokop, James M. Quigley, George M. Rhodes, Herman Toll, and Francis E. Walter, Mrs. Kathryn Granahan was paired against the

OPPOSE NEW LAW

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP) - The Pennsylvania League of Cities' Central Division has expressed opposition to a proposed state law calling for arbitration of firemen's wage grievances in cities with paid fire departments.

John O'Neil, the league's executive director, said at a meeting Wednesday that the bill, in effect would create a firemen's union.

NAMED GRID COACH

Robert Garrett, a former Biglerville High School coach, was named Wednesday evening by the Spring Grove Joint District Board as coach of the Spring Grove Senior High football team which will be fielded for the first time next season. Last year Garrett launched football for the first time at Spring Grove with a junicr high team.

PAT BOONE TO WIND UP NBC SEASON

By CYNTHIA LOWRY NEW YORK (AP)-Three more hard-working television stars are leaving the nation's screen for their summer vacations. Pat Boone winds up his ABO season tonight immediately followed on NBC by Tennessee Ernie

Garry Moore, still has almost another week to go, but his Tues day night show shop will suspend,

New Dramatic Series

Ford's time will be filled by a new dramatic series called "21 Beacon Street," starring Dennis Morgan who also happenes to be one of Ernie's guests tonight Moore's departure means the arrival of singer Andy Williams who 10:05-Drifting & Dreaming has been making a career out of summertime TV shows.

Pat Boone's time-last year filled by Andy Williams-this summer goes into reruns of last winter's "Leave It To Beaver" se-

Fight On Radios

You may feel that there are more repeats and reruns this summer than ever before, but actually the situation seems a touch better than last season. Still, you have to keep a steady hand on the channel selector if you want to steer clear of familiar sights. During the so-called prime viewing hours from 8 p.m. throught 10 p.m. weekday nights on the three major networks, reruns range from five-on Wednesday nights-to 12 on Friday. On Monday and Tues- fight between Floyd Patterson and day there are a total of 10 during Ingemar Johannson, at Yankee these two and one-half hours; on Stadium will be broadcast ex-Thursday nights 11, not even clusively by ABC-Radio, although counting shows which are mixing there will also be a closed-circuit up new shows with old ones.

Tonight's 15-round championship viewers.

NECK-DEEP IN TREATMENT

For many years, neuralgia victims had to endure such treatments as using packs of hot sand. There's a world of difference in today's remedies. Thanks to medical science, they're reliable. But don't use any medications indiscriminately. Your physician should be your guide . . . he's the only person qualified to decide when you need medications. Let him do the diagnosing and prescribing. We'll be glad to fill his prescriptions for you.

If the troops were withdrawn and the supply lines closed, in no time the Soviet and German Communists could force the West Berliners to their knees. Their city would be part of the Communis world in no time.

Alliance Could Fall

Even worse, if the Western troops were withdrawn under Sovet pressure and threats, the whole Western alliance in Europe would come apart since its own members would lose confidence in its will and usefulness.

This was why the West went to Geneva determined-and is still determined-not to abandon West Berlin. So when Herter emphasized this in his talk he was stating not only the obvious but what already had been stated.

In short-taking Herter's talk as a whole he seems to have no more positive reason now for thinking agreement can be worked out with the Soviets than he did when he first went to Geneva in May All he expressed Tuesday night was a small hope that maybe things can be different.

Queen Elizabeth's visit to Chicago this month will provide a sparkling contrast to the city's first experience with royalty nearly 100 years ago.

Chicago's budding society was itching to show off its finery - imported from the East - and to display the fancy drills it had practiced for a grand parade, when the Prince of Wales came to town

But Albert Edward - later King Edward VII - came incognito as Baron Renfrew. He squelched the plans for celebrations in his honor and insisted on being treated like an ordinary Englishman.

Mayor "Long John" Wentworth saved face by declaring that the prince was merely following the wishes of most Chicagoans, who did not like "kow-towing to royalty."

The city got its chance to entertain in the grand manner in 1893, when the Duke and Duchess of Veragua arrived for the World's Columbian Exposition.

Back home on the farm, the duke quietly raised prize bulls for the Madrid bull ring. But in Chicago, he was wined and dined as the only living descendant of Columbus.

The festivities overwhelmed the duke, and he was reluctant to leave. The national commission that was paying his expenses was just as reluctant to see him stay. After a month, the commission declared that his visit - so far as the national pocketbook was concerned - was at an end.

Chicagoans hoping to meet Queen Elizabeth might take a tip on etiquette from the debate that raged over the visit of the Infanta Eulalia of Spain in 1893. The crucial question was: It is proper to shake hands with a princess. Mrs. Potter Palmer - whose word was society's law - decided that it was up to the princess. Mrs. Palmer needn't have been so solicitous. The late entrance wasn't yet fashionable in Chicago, and the Infanta created a social scandal by daring to arrive late and leave early at a reception given for here . . . by Mrs. Palmer.

Great Britain covers an area smaller than the state of Oregon but it has 34 times as many people as Oregon.

Forty-five million motorists on the highway.

This is the situation the National Safety Council foresees over the upcoming Fourth of July weekend.

"It will be a three-day holiday for most Americans," the council said, "and this means more cars on the road than on an average summer weekend. Just the fact that it's a holiday means more motorists will be out - headed somewhere to celebrate.

These factors combine to increase the chances for accidents.

Not one of these millions of drivers will be expecting an accident to happen to him. But with such a traffic swarm, every motorist must be extra cautious to prevent accidents.

Prisoner Will Attend Funeral

PHILADELPHIA (AP)-Despite the objections of Dist. Atty. Victor H. Blanc, a judge has decided to let John J. Coyle attend the funeral of his brother, William.

Judge Raymond Pace Alexander granted a petition Tuesday to alow John to leave Holmesburg Prison for the funeral. Blanc said a date for the funeral has not been set and the petition does not specify when Coyle is to be released for the funeral.

Coyle is charged with first degree murder in the slaying of patrolman James F. Kane. He was captured and his brother shot last week when police caught up with them in Massachusetts.

A study of highway fatalities during both summer and winter holidays showed that about half of the drivers involved in fatal accidents had been drinking.

"This point is clear," said the council. "Don't drink if you're going to drive!" The same study showed speed was a factor in more than 7 out of 10 holiday acci-

SON'S 1ST DATE The Luckless Legion by Irwin Caplan HASHOUSEHOLD IN REAL PANIC

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) - My son. nearing 14, had his first date the other night. His parents are still trying to recover.

The occasion was a dance for the junior high school graduating class. They didn't have such things back in Tecumseh, Okla., when father was a boy, but never mind. Times change.

To start with, Master Brenn Turner Stilley didn't hanker to attend the dance at all. It wasn't because he didn't know how to dance. He does. They teach it in schools here nowadays.

Endless Preparation

For days mother scurried about. New shoes, new shirt, new tie Letting out the coat sleeves of his one good suit to cover his gangly arms. Getting the suit cleaned and pressed.

The great night finally arrived. Mother gave son an endless review of previous instructions in the social graces.

Father did likewise, taking the lad aside to slip him a five-spot for running expenses. The budding Lothario also was urged not to make a nitwit of himself by abandoning his date at the dance to gather and gab with the other

DOCTOR SETS LIMITS FOR 2-YEAR-OLDS

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D. The Associated Press

A child of 2 is into everything. it until he is 3 you'd better set

But think about it ahead of time Balmain took a dim view of law and plan what you are going to

If you don't plan, you are likely to become a screaming shrew constantly dashing to your child with yells of "No!" "Stop!" "Don't.

What are the child's needs and what are yours?

A 2-year-old learns by doing the more he does the more he learns, and you really do want him to learn. The limits you set should direct the child to use his boundless energy and curiosity to find out as much as possible about the world, and at the same time preserve a few of your material possessions for later years! He cannot be allowed to tear up your books, but he can have a pile of old magazines that he can do with as he likes, look at, pile up, tear freely.

If you possibly can, arrange a place where the child is free to do anything he wants to do, where you do not have to say "No." See to it that that place is well equipped with interesting things to do - interesting if you are 2 years old. Ideally there might be both an indoor play place and a well fenced backyard or outdoor place.

Reasonable Rules

In the rest of the house, protect what you can. Put away your precious and expensive bric-abrac, reduce the off-limits areas to a reasonable number and then be firm and consistent about what he cannot touch. He cannot play with the spigots on the gas stove, he cannot jump on the living room couch, he cannot pull the books off the shelves.

Don't try to give a 2-year-old reasons for the restrictions. At this age you are the absolute authority. It is "No" because you say "No," but try to be a benevolent despot, not a tyrant. You must know why you say "No" even if you don't try to tell your reason to your young child.

And above all, be consistent. Your "No" must always be the same. Lack of consistency is one of the greatest causes of failure of discipline, and the consistency must be real to the child. If he musn't touch the coffee pot because it may be hot, he had bet ter never be allowed to touch it - even when it's not hot

If your child has ample op portunity to explore his world he will be able to take reasonable limitations without undo frustration on his part.

Divert Him

A 2-year-old is seldom interest od in anything for very long at a time. You can often divert his interest from a forbidden to a permitted object before a tanbrum develops

A 2-year-old often needs protection against himself. He cannot control his own impulses and desires and he needs you to step in and stop him from hurting some person or some pet.

A young child who feels and understands that there are limits to what he is allowed to do feel much more secure and much safer than if he lives in a world without restrictions. He likes the knowledge that you protect him.

Try to make a reasonable world for your 2-year-old to explore. Be calm, consistent and always friendly. These are difficult things to do, but they are not impossible.

MUU-MUU IS FLOP WITH FRENCHMAN

Balmain said the loose-fitting, nightgown-like dress might be "fun" but it wouldn't be worn on the Riviera or anywhere else in the world. And, he said, no one but a young and shapely woman has any business wearing one.

The muu-muu is a shapeless, drapeless gown, usually floorlength, that originated in the 1820s when missionary wives put Mother Hubbards over the Polynesians to cover their nakedness The Polynesians since then have prettied the gowns by putting flower prints on them.

Stops In Honolulu

Balmain, whose fashion house In Paris employs 800 and caters to society women, stopped off in Honolulu on his round-the-world vacation trip.

He remarked that he didn't pay much attention to what women in the islands are wearing. "I've been on the beach al most all the time," he said. And what did he think of what be saw on the beach?

HONOR TEACHER FOR SUCCESS WITHPROBLEMS

By MARK SHEEHAN

NEW YORK (AP)-The art of handling troublesome children is the art of remembering how you felt when you were a child.

That's the philosophy of John M. Tully, and it works.

In 47 years as a teacher, 33 o them as principal of Public School 66 in the Bronx, he has had remarkable success with problem children. His formula is simple. Knows Tricks

"It takes a bad boy to straighten out a bad boy, and I was a bad boy at school," he said Monday "I know all their ways and tricks because I tried them myself when I was young.'

As a principal, he has had plenty of opportunity to test his ideas, and he never had to get lough. He believes in being firm but he has never used corporal punishment. He says, "No child is really bad or vicious if handled properly."

Tully's secret lies in what he means by handling children properly. It means liking them enough not to miss a single day at school in 33 years as principal, enough to spend weekends walking around the neighborhood seeing that his pupils stay out of trouble. and even taking them home with him when they do get in trouble. Youth Work

It also means finding time to work with a half dozen community youth groups - which, with his school work, has brought him as many awards from different organizations.

The gray-haired widower, who will be 70 next month when he retires, received an unusual award Monday - the Insignis Medal of Fordham University, for "extraordinary distinction in the service of God through excellent professional performance.'

With it came a compliment from Fordham's president, the Very Rev. Laurence J. McGinley, S.J. who said of Tully that "in his long years of service he never thought of children as statistics.' Retirement holds no gloom for Tully. He smiled as he said it will give him more time to work with youth groups. After all, he grinned, "I'm still a boy myself."
